

Wednesday 1st April 2009
9am	A	Welcome Diagnosis and treatment of ADHD in adults in the UK - The NICE guidance and current service development across the UK. Professor Philip Asherson ADHD and Executive Function impairments in High IQ older adolescents and adults Professor Tom Brown
	B	Welcome ADHD and Family Stress Thomas Phelan PhD ADHD is a Developmental Disability and not a Mental Illness. Implications for support and treatment. Professor Jeremy Turk
10.50		coffee
11.15		Parallel Sessions
	A	Is It You, Me, or Adult A.D.D.?: Cooling the Hot Spots in Relationships Affected by A.D.D. Gina Pera
	B	NICE and adult ADHD: an independent view Dr Neil MacFarlane
	C	The New Forest Parenting Programme -early intervention for young children with ADHD Cathy Laver-Bradbury
	D	NHS Quality improvement Scotland Dr Fiona Forbes, Jane Byrne, Ruth Thomson
12.30		Lunch
1.45	A	At School I Kept Breaking Pencils, Now I Keep Breaking My Heart. Alan Lawrence Community Psychiatric Nurse who has ADHD.
	B	Cutting Edge Technologies that "Deliver": Pharmacological Treatments for ADHD: Dr Robert Doyle
	C	Surviving Your Adolescents with ADHD Thomas Phelan PhD
	D	Hassle, Headaches and Heartaches of Homework: Strategies to Ease the Pain Zara Harris MSc, SROT
3.00		tea
3.30		ADDISS Keynote Followed by Panel Discussion
4.30 close		